

Innovation Law

Michael J. Meurer

BU Law

Part I: Innovation and Existential Threats

Part II: Crafting Good Law and Policy

2: Good and Bad Technology

3: Coordinating Policy

4: Diffusion

5: Picking Winners

Part III: Legal and Policy Instruments

6: Demand-Side Instruments

7: Supply-Side Instruments

8: Transactions and Organizations

9: Competition

Supply-Side Instruments

- STEM Workers
 - Immigration and Employment Law
- Finance
 - Financial Regulation, Bankruptcy, Tax Policy
- Infrastructure
 - Training STEM Workers, Basic Research Funding, Gov't Research and Databases

Employment Law

- Mobility – CNC, Non-solicitation, Inevitable Disclosure Doctrine
- Workplace Discrimination
- Worker Protection

Immigration

Immigrants' Big Share of Nobel Prizes in the Sciences

Number of Nobel laureates in physics, chemistry, medicine and economy per country (1969-2020)*

* As of Oct. 8, 2020. Immigration status determined by place of birth and affiliation at time of win

Source: Nobel Prize Foundation

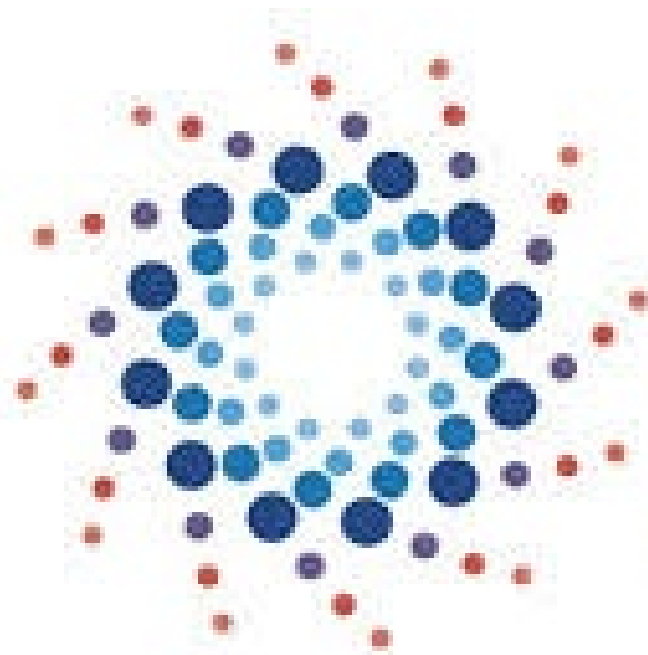

Bankruptcy

Financial Regulation

Tax Policy

SBIR • STTR
America's Seed Fund