

Authors and Claimants in U.S. Copyright Registrations, 1978 – 2012

Robert Brauneis and Dotan Oliar

This paper will present the results of an empirical study of 16 million copyright registrations on the changing roles and identities of authors and copyright claimants. Topics will include trends in co-authorship, and in corporate authorship and ownership of works under copyright.