

Call For Applications

Practitioner in Residence (PIR)

Are you a changemaker working at the intersection of migration, human rights, and advocacy? The DePaul Migration Collaborative Practitioner in Residence Program (PIR) is now accepting applications for 2025-2026. This unique residency invites experienced practitioners to develop and share impactful, replicable models of migrant support rooted in human rights standards. Residency runs 6-8 months. Apply Today!

Learn more about the PIR program and past projects: HERE
Learn More about the Application and Apply: HERE

Application Opens: August 15th
Application Closes: September 15th

Become a Practitioner in Residence

This program invites experts on migration, immigration, and human rights to collaborate, address migration challenges, and inform policies. Participants gain access to DePaul resources and have the opportunity to influence various migration-related discussions. The residency lasts 6-8 months and promotes practical solutions for contemporary migration issues.

DePaul Migration Collaborative Website → Open applications → PIR Application

Residency

Highlights

- Develop new connections in your field
- Work with student researchers and train advocates
- Personalized support
- Access to university resources
- Contribute to migration research and develop new strategies for advocacy
- Generous stipend and project budget

"I was so impressed with everyone I met -- faculty, students and staff -- at DePaul and the Migration Collaborative. I began several relationships I think will continue far into the future. I felt intellectually alive in ways I have not for some years and am so grateful to the cross-disciplinary and applied conversations I got to have with so many."- Past PIR

Questions? Contact migration@depaul.edu Application Due: September 15, 2025

Advisory Council (Open to Faculty Only)

The DePaul Migration Collaborative (DMC) seeks full-time faculty members to serve on its Advisory Council. The DMC is a cooperative effort between the College of Law and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Positions are not limited to professors that represent the COL and LAS. Advisory Council Members serve a 3-year term. The primary role of an Advisory Council Member is to work with the DePaul Migration Collaborative through contributions to their programming and providing advice as needed. It includes sharing your expertise and knowledge to guide the DMC in fulfilling its values and goals. We seek to harness the power of interdisciplinary scholarly collaboration to pursue dynamic community-engaged projects, advocacy, and research.

Application Opens: August 15th
Application Closes: September 17th
Decisions Made: September 30th
Terms Start Date: October 6th

More Information: HERE
Application: HERE

Join Our Advisory Council

Our Mission

The mission of the DePaul Migration Collaborative (DMC) is to advocate for better public policy, foster cutting-edge research and publications, train the next generation of advocates, and provide transformative learning experiences for our students and community members alike. We seek to harness the power of interdisciplinary scholarly collaboration to pursue dynamic, community-engaged projects, advocacy, and research.

Core Commitments

- Engagement & Participation: Stay actively involved with DMC programming by attending events, quarterly meetings, and contributing to discussions and feedback efforts.
- Communication & Promotion: Share DMC news, events, and opportunities with students, colleagues, and relevant networks to increase participation and awareness of migration topics.
- Support & Contribution: Assist with events when available (e.g., moderating), subscribe and contribute to the DMC newsletter, and support funding initiatives.
- Collaboration: Help build and strengthen connections between DMC and other departments or programs across the university.

Applications Due September 17th

Questions: email migration@depaul.edu

DMC

Why Join?

Impact

Be a part of shaping the direction of the DMC's programs and initiatives through insights and expertise.

Connection

Foster new connections and build on previous ones through events, committees, and engagement with DMC research

Visit our website, then select: open applications → Advisory Council

Contact Us: migration@depaul.edu

Subscribe to DMC Newsletter and be Notified of Events: <https://forms.office.com/r/BL7Bcv9ag8>

Unsubscribe: <https://forms.office.com/r/18MdDvGdqW>