What do you remember most about your time in the Clinic?

Being able to do client intake and attending a master calendar hearing.

What lessons from the clinic do you still use today or have used in your professional career?

The importance of the personal statement and working closely with clients on it to make sure that their story is fully told.

How did your involvement with the clinic help you connect with other professionals in the field?

I was able to meet immigration judges and some trial attorneys prior to starting my career as an immigration attorney.

What would you tell current or future DePaul law students about the clinic?

To fully commit to the process and use the opportunity to learn as much as you can about immigration law and practice.

Is there a message you would like to share with your fellow Clinic alums, faculty, or staff?

I will always appreciate the guidance and mentorship I received from Professor Albiol.
