

Civil Procedure

Fall 2017

M, W 10:00-11:45 am; Rm. 804 LC

Professor Morales

For our first class please read chapters 1 and 2 of the required text, Glannon, Perlman, Raven-Hansen, CIVIL PROCEDURE: A COURSEBOOK; these readings provide a bird's eye view of what you'll be learning in depth for the rest of the semester. We will go over these readings over the course of the first few classes. Read carefully, but don't fret if you're confused by one or another (or every) concept; things will become clearer as we march through the course. You should also read the complaint in Davis v. City of Chicago, No. 08 CV 5130 (N.D. Ill.). The complaint will be the focus of the first class session. Please note that this assignment is significantly longer than will be typical for each class session.