To decline your admission, please fill out this form or send an email to lawinfo@depaul.edu. In your email, please include your name, LSAC account number and email address. Your email should state that you wish to withdraw your application and decline our offer of admission for Fall 2020.

1.4 Orientation, Registration & Books

Orientation

The mandatory New Student Orientation and 1L Service Day begins on Monday, August 17 for students and runs through Friday, August 21. Students in the two-year JD program for foreign lawyers also have mandatory International Student Orientation starting on Monday, August 17. Please note that your Legal Writing (LARC) classes will begin during this initial week. It is important that you attend all scheduled classes and activities. In mid-July, you will receive detailed information about Orientation.

Orientation serves as an introduction to the College of Law and various University services. Orientation also includes an introduction to student affairs, study skills and your first classes. We have also planned social activities where you will have an opportunity to get to know your classmates.

Registration & Class Schedule

In mid-July, we will mail your section assignment and class schedule. All first-year students are automatically assigned to a section and registered for all first-year classes. You should not attempt to register for classes on your own. Because it is important that we balance the sections with regard to academic credentials as well as other factors, students are not permitted to select their section. Students who require a section change as an accommodation for a disability should contact the Office of Admissions at lawinfo@depaul.edu or 312-362-6831. For full-time day students, classes are held Monday through Friday. For first-year, evening students, classes begin at 5:50 p.m., Monday through Thursday. To access your syllabi and first class assignments, please visit D2L at d2l.depaul.edu and login using your Campus Connect credentials. Please note that information may not be updated until after this summer.

College of Law full-time JD students are strongly discouraged from being employed for more than 20 hours per week while autumn and spring semester classes are in session. If a student needs to work more than 20 hours per week, the student should transfer to the part-time division. If full-time first-year JD students feel compelled to work, they should be careful to limit their hours so as not to interfere with their studies. Students are expected to arrange their work schedules around College of Law classes. Adjustments in the curriculum or final exams will not be made because of work conflicts.

Bookstore

Your books will be available for purchase in DePaul's Barnes & Noble bookstore in approximately 2 weeks before classes begin. The Barnes & Noble bookstore is located in the DePaul Center at 1 E. Jackson, on the southeast corner of Jackson Boulevard & State Street. They can be reached at 312-362-8795. Bookstore hours of operation are:

Saturday: 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Sunday: 11:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Once textbooks become available, students can also purchase books online from DePaul's Barnes & Noble by visiting the website for you to pick up in the Barnes & Noble located on DePaul's Loop Campus. You should not attempt to purchase books until you have received your section assignment and Fall schedule.

Students can obtain a locker and pay the $20 annual fee through Campus Connect. Login using your credentials, and in the top right corner click on the navigation icon. Follow this pathway: Navigator > Self Service > University Services > My Locker Details. Select 'Rent a New Locker' and choose your desired location from the availability in the drop down menu. Once agreeing to the terms of the rental agreement and completing payment, you will receive the combination. If you have further questions, please send an email to lockers@depaul.edu

1.6 Facebook

If you would like to join the group, please log on to Facebook and search for the group "DePaul Law: Fall 2020 Entering Students" and request to join. If you are unable to find the group, please contact Elisa Correa, Assistant Director of Admissions, at ecorrea3@depaul.edu so she may send you the group link to join.

1.7 Final Transcript

The American Bar Association requires that the law school in which you enroll have an official and final copy of all transcripts for any academic work or degree conferred.

Specifically for your undergraduate baccalaureate degree, if you submitted your undergraduate college transcripts to LSAC prior to having completed your degree, you must request that your university send another official transcript to LSAC which shows that your undergraduate degree was completed. LSAC will update your JD CAS report with your final transcript and verify conferral of your baccalaureate degree. All transcripts for any academic work or degrees conferred must be received by our office no later than August 1, 2020. Students whose transcripts are not received by this date may risk delaying the disbursement of their financial aid.

If you have not already done so, please visit www.fafsa.gov to submit your FAFSA. If this is the case with your application, you will be notified via email, and requested items will be placed on your 'to-do' summary, located on the top right corner of your Campus Connect home page.

For more information regarding your financial aid, visit www.studentaid.gov.

2.3 Scholarships

Scholarships

All students admitted to the law school are automatically considered for available DePaul administered scholarships. Students who receive a scholarship award are notified in their acceptance letter. Scholarships are awarded to entering law students based upon their achievements, personal qualities and potential to contribute to the DePaul law community. Our scholarships range from a few thousand dollars per year up to forty-thousand dollars per year. We do not award any full-tuition scholarships.

Below are the answers to frequently asked questions about scholarship awards:

1) I was not awarded a scholarship in my acceptance letter. Can I be reevaluated for a scholarship award?

Most law students have concerns about how they will finance their legal education. Our scholarship awards are limited and, unfortunately, we do not have the funds to award scholarships to many deserving students who have substantial need. The vast majority of our students will rely heavily upon loans to finance all or a portion of their education. Because of this limited funding, we are not able to reevaluate students who did not receive an award. The scholarship award levels are based upon the availability of funds for the academic year. Scholarships are awarded to entering law students based upon their achievements, personal qualities and potential to contribute to the DePaul law community. Students not awarded a scholarship for their first year of study may become eligible for scholarship awards at a later time (see below).

2) I received a scholarship, but require additional funding. Will DePaul increase my award to meet my need or to match a scholarship award I received from another law school?

Because our scholarship funds are limited, we are unable to increase the scholarship awards of students who have received an award. Our scholarship award levels are based upon the availability of funds for the academic year and our experience as to the amounts necessary to attract top candidates for law admission. Unfortunately, we never have enough money to meet the daily requests we receive for additional funding. Because our scholarship funds are limited, we are unable to negotiate, match other awards, or otherwise increase our scholarship awards.

3) When other accepted students decline their admission to DePaul, do their scholarships become available to be awarded to students who did not initially receive an award?

Our scholarship awarding structure already takes into account the fact that some students who are awarded scholarships will not enroll. Because our process anticipates this, new awards do not become available when students decline their admission and scholarship award.

4) What types of scholarships are available to continuing students, after the first year of law school?

Upper level law students have opportunities to apply for a variety of scholarships offered both within and outside of the College of Law. Many of our academic programs at DePaul administer their own scholarship awards. These scholarships are typically awarded to upper-level students who are excelling in a particular class or academic program, but there are a few for incoming 1L law students. You can access our external scholarship database here. Once you begin law school, you will receive a regular newsletter which lists various scholarship awards and competitions. Most of the external scholarships (outside of the University) target upper-level law students with specific interests. For example, a number of bar associations and other groups offer awards to students who are interested in specific practice areas or who reside in certain cities and states. We also suggest that you conduct your own search for scholarships for which you may qualify.

5) What happens to my scholarship if I switch programs (full-time/part-time) after my first year of law school?

Full-time students must remain in the full-time program to renew their scholarship award. A student moving from the full-time day program to the part-time program will receive a reduced award in the part-time program. The reduction may not be precisely proportionate with tuition in the part-time program. A student moving from the part-time evening program to the full-time program after their first year will receive a comparable scholarship award for each remaining academic year.

6) What must I do to retain my scholarship in subsequent academic years?

Dean's Scholarships do not require that the scholarship recipient maintain a minimum cumulative GPA to renew their scholarship award. The scholarships automatically renew each year a student remains in good academic standing. Scholarships are not reduced or eliminated.

If you have questions regarding your scholarship award, please contact the Office of Admissions at lawinfo@depaul.edu.

3. New Student Services

Proof of Immunization

The Office of Student Records is responsible for collecting and reporting this information. Please have your health care provider complete the Certificate of Immunity Form and submit the completed form to The Office of Student Records by August 1st. The form is available online. ### 3.4 Students with Disabilities

The College of Law ensures equal opportunities for students with disabilities. Our facilities are fully accessible and efforts are made to accommodate requests from individuals whose permanent or temporary disability requires accommodation.

If you have a disability that may require accommodations, you should contact the Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD). The mission of the Center for Students with Disabilities is to provide accommodations and support to students with disabilities that will enable them to fully participate in programs and services that are available at DePaul University. In addition, the Center for Students with Disabilities encourages students with disabilities to independently manage their lives inside the University as well as in the community outside the University.

The CSD works with various departments within the University to ensure that qualified student(s) with disabilities are not denied the benefit of, excluded from participation in, or otherwise subjected to discrimination because of the absence of educational auxiliary aids. If you have a disability that will require accommodations during exams, you should also contact Maria Vertuno, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs at mvertuno@depaul.edu or 312-362-1030.

All students requesting services from CSD are required to complete the enrollment process. ### 3.5 International Students

International students should be familiar with basic laws affecting their non-immigrant F-1 visa status. The Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 places a particular emphasis on the need for international students to take responsibility for maintaining their lawful student status. It is critical that students in F-1 visa status maintain their lawful status throughout their program of study.

4. Living in Chicago

4.1 Student Housing

Located in the Loop just south of the College of Law, the University Center (UC) offers furnished apartments and suites. Created in conjunction with neighboring Columbia College and Roosevelt University, UC provides an excellent living experience in the heart of Chicago. Amenities include a rooftop garden, multimedia rooms, an exercise center, food court, laundry facilities, shops on the lower level, 24-hour security, and key card access to the building and elevators. For more information, visit <http://offices.depaul.edu/housing/housing-options/loop/university-center/Pages/default.aspx>.

Another option for law students is the Infinite student apartment buildings located directly across the street from the College of Law. Infinite, a private facility, offers fully furnished units that include washer/dryer, designer furniture, stainless steel appliances, flat panel TV and free WiFi and cable. Additional information is available at www.chicagoinfinite.com. They also have a similar style building just three blocks away. Please find more information about their newer building, Arc at Old Colony, at arcatoldcolony.com.

4.2 Off Campus Housing

Many law students find housing in Chicago by using an apartment finding service. These services are free and can be extremely helpful to new students who are not familiar with the many wonderful neighborhoods in Chicago. StudentSpace is a free apartment finding service that works specifically to help graduate students find housing in Chicago. StudentSpace can even help you secure housing remotely if you aren't able to travel to Chicago for your housing search. For more details, visit www.student-space.com.

Additional popular free local apartment finding services include Chicago Apartment Finders and Apartment People.

Although Chicago has more than 200 distinct neighborhoods, most DePaul law students live in communities near DePaul's Lincoln Park and Downtown/Loop campuses. Popular choices include some of Chicago's most interesting and vibrant areas.

Gold Coast/Streeterville: Just north of the Loop business district, Streeterville is home to such Chicago landmarks as the John Hancock Center, the famous Water Tower (the only building to survive the Great Chicago Fire) and the Museum of Contemporary Art, to name a few. It's also home to one of the world's greatest shopping districts, a stretch of Michigan Avenue dubbed the "Magnificent Mile." The Gold Coast, just north of Streeterville and west of Lake Michigan, boasts beaches, lakefront biking and jogging, shopping, restaurants and coffee houses. It's also a thriving night spot with many of the city's most popular bars and clubs located near Rush and Division.

Wrigleyville/Lakeview: The name says it all. Home to Wrigley Field and the world-famous Chicago Cubs, this tree-lined neighborhood sports classic brownstones, courtyard apartments, and, yes, the occasional baseball fan. With a population of students, young professionals and families, both Wrigleyville and its neighbor-to-the-south, Lakeview, offer much in the way of restaurants, bars and parks. Public transportation easily connects both neighborhoods to downtown Chicago and DePaul's Loop campus.

South Loop/West Loop: These revitalized areas rank among the hottest neighborhoods for young professionals. Just minutes away from the city's business and financial districts, they offer much in the way of trendy loft-style living. Both the South and West Loop contain some of the city's newest restaurants, bars and clubs. They're also close to several of the city's great cultural attractions, including the Field Museum of Natural History, the Shedd Aquarium, Adler Planetarium and Soldier Field.

Lincoln Park: Many DePaul students live in this north side enclave, which surrounds DePaul's Lincoln Park campus and includes its library, computer labs, sports facilities, and the Ray Meyer Fitness and Recreation Center (one of the city's finest gyms, named for DePaul's famed basketball coach). One of Chicago's most popular neighborhoods, Lincoln Park features some of the Second City's best restaurants and entertainment. It's home to the Steppenwolf Theater Company, Charlie Trotter's world-class restaurant and the clubs of Weed Street. There are also numerous parks, lakefront bike and jogging paths, and the Lincoln Park Zoo.

Logan Square/Bucktown/Wicker Park: These Northwest neighborhoods are filled with art, nightlife, and affordable housing. They connect to downtown Chicago through the CTA Blue Line. Logan Square boasts tree-lined boulevards, Bucktown is a known foodie destination, and Wicker Park has a four-acre namesake park to enjoy.

4.3 Ventra U-Pass (CTA)

The Ventra U-Pass is your ticket to UNLIMITED riding aboard CTA buses and CTA trains. Use your U-Pass on the CTA bus/rail system anytime, anywhere, for any reason. It's your connection to school, shopping, sports events, social activities, art and entertainment centers, and all the things Chicago has to offer. To learn more about the Ventra U-Pass, please visit the U-Pass website at <http://upass.depaul.edu>.

What is the Ventra U-Pass?

The U-Pass is a transit pass that eligible students can use for unlimited rides anywhere on the CTA (Chicago Transit Authority) system. Pursuant to our contract with the CTA, only full-time students who are enrolled in at least 12 credit hours per semester at the College of Law receive a Ventra U-Pass. Part-time evening students they must be enrolled in 9 credit hours. In 2020-2021, all eligible students are billed $168.00 per semester for the pass. The Ventra U-Pass is valid on CTA-operated bus and rail lines 24 hours per day and seven days per week. The pass will NOT be valid during winter break or during the summer; it is, however, valid over spring break.

How do I get it?

Eligible students are responsible for picking up their U-Pass. All students must present a valid DePaul ID in order to receive their U-Pass. When you pick up your ID in early August, you can request your U-PASS. It should be available for pickup and ready for use on the first day of orientation. Failure to pick up the U-Pass does not eliminate the charge. U-Pass will work through the date printed on the U-Pass as long as students remain eligible. Designated days and times for picking up your U-Pass will be given to you at a later date. For bus and train schedules, visit the CTA's website at <http://www.transitchicago.com>.
