Legal Clinics & Field Clinics

Legal Clinic courses provide the opportunity for students to engage in direct client service under the close supervision of law faculty. Field Clinics provide the opportunity for students to engage in direct legal service under the supervision of a practicing attorney, combined with a classroom course covering subject-area doctrine taught by a practitioner. Enrollment is by instructor permission. For more information and to apply, go to go.depaul.edu/LegalClinic. All clinics meet the Experiential Education requirement except Advanced Criminal Appeals.

Study Abroad & International Exchange Programs

The College of Law offers a variety of international exchanges, practicums and study abroad opportunities. For more details and application information for the individual programs, see http://www.law.depaul.edu/academics/study_abroad/default.asp. Please note these credits count toward a student's spring credit load. Full-time students are limited to 16 credits per semester; part-time students are limited to 12 credits per semester. Graduating students may receive permission to add an extra credit in the final semester. Additional tuition charges apply for the overload credit.
